

MYANMAR

Thanbyuzayat War Memorial Tour 2017 / 2018

Tours run from October to March

Burma played an important role in WWII for the Japanese Army, particularly in the construction of the infamous “Death Railway”. To support the cavalry in the Burma Campaign, the Japanese used forced labour on thousands of Allied Forces & Asian labourers to build a track between Siam & Burma.

On this unique tour, combine a pilgrimage to the country’s most important memorial sites with the very best that Burma travel has to offer:

- Pay your respects at the well-kept graves of the Commonwealth War Memorial Cemeteries in Thanbyuzayat & Taukkyan
- See one of the last trains on the Siam/Burma railway
- Visit the old seaport of Moulmein, famed in the writings of Rudyard Kipling & George Orwell
- Marvel at the scale and beauty of thousands of temples & pagoda’s scattered Across the Kingdom of Bagan
- Watch sunset & gaze in awe under the bright lights of Yangon’s incomparable Shwe Dagon Pagoda

8 days, 7 nights from US$1395 per person, minimum 2 people

Special offer: Book 12 people the 12th person travels free

Inclusive of: airport & hotel transfers, all internal flights, air-conditioned coach trips, 3.5-4 star accommodation with breakfasts, experienced bilingual tour guide, entry fees.

www.burmatravel.com.au

info@burmatravel.com.au

Alistair +61 419 962 946

© Images courtesy of Commonwealth War Graves
Commission & Burma Travel