Camborne Branch of The Royal British Legion has a vacancy for a Branch President

Basic requirements are....

The President role has both a representational and encouraging function. The incumbent should be a person distinguished in public life, the local community or the Legion.

The President, although an Officer of the Branch, has a non-executive role without a vote; however, he/she may attend and speak at the meetings of the Branch committee.

The President should have the ability to open doors, establish useful contacts and bring influence to bear in order to promote the best interest of the Legion within the local community
