MILDRED RICHARDSON 1923 - 26 December 2014

On Boxing Day, our popular member Mildred Richardson died, just 17 days short of her 92nd birthday. She had known since the spring that she had an incurable condition, but with her usual fortitude she had “kept calm and carried on”. She had no military connection but as soon as she joined the Legion, she became a generous donor, and an enthusiastic supporter of every meeting, outing, and lunch that was organised in the branch.
