A letter from the Chairman Adm^l Sir R. Raikes from King Edward VII Hospital was read enquiring as to the activities of the committee.

The Hon Sec reported that he had replied in detail and had conveyed the wishes of the committee to Sir Robert for a speedy recovery.

A further letter from Sir Robert was read dated 25 March in which he suggested that owing to the fact that his recovery would take some time a new chairman should be appointed.

It was decided that as there is little business in hand we should carry on until the next annual meeting.

This concluded the business.
