

The Ralph Browne Award for Meritorious Service

This award was instituted by the Oxted & District Branch of The Royal British Legion on the 13th November 1983. In recognition of the twenty five years of service by Ralph Browne of escorting the Remembrance Sunday Parade. Ralph Browne served with the RAF and as a Surrey Police Constable before retirement. The aim of this award is to recognise members of the Oxted & District Branch who have exemplified what the Legion is about. Service not Self.

List of people awarded:

1983 The RBL Women's Section.

1985 Mr George Bright.

1986 Ron & Eve Batchelor.

1989 Mr D T Knowles.

1996 Arthur & Eva Cherry.

1997 Mrs G Mears.

1999 Mrs J Brackpool.

2000 Mrs M Bright.

2002 Mrs J F Grant.

2005 Mrs L Witherington.

2006 Mrs F Hay.

2010 Mr A D Simmons.

2011 Mr J Grant & Mrs L Ashton.

2022 Mrs H Burton.

2025 Mr Mike Hurman.