Supporting peace and stability

Remembering Kosovo
25 years on

D-Day Kosovo event in pictures

On 11th June 2024, we marked 25 years since the end of the war in Kosovo and the deployment of the NATO peacekeeping force, KFOR. For a quarter of a century, British forces have been dedicated to supporting peace and stability in Kosovo. We recognised that unwavering service and sacrifice with a commemorative event in the Armed Forces

Marking South Asian Heritage Month

As part of our commitment to recognising the diverse contributions to the Armed Forces community, we are celebrating South Asian Heritage Month with some fantastic resources. South Asian Heritage Month runs from mid-July to mid-August. We are pleased to contribute stories of service, sacrifice and remembrance to the official website. These stories embody the theme 'Free to Be Me' by showcasing the remarkable experiences of South Asian personnel who have served or are serving in the British Armed Forces. We encourage you to explore these resources to learn more about this shared history, the ongoing service of British South Asian personnel, and the rich tapestry of South Asian heritage within the Armed Forces community.

We're committed to the LGBTIQA+

RBL is committed to being a welcoming and inclusive organisation that supports and includes everyone, regardless of their gender identity or sexual orientation. On Saturday 29th June colleagues, volunteers, members, and beneficiaries marched alongside the LGBTIQA+ community in London, proudly wearing the RBL Pride Poppy Badge. Our Pride Poppy Badge is available to purchase from Poppy Shop. Our new badge symbolises our support for the lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, intersex, asexual and other sexually or gender diverse Armed Forces community.

Ask new MPs to commit to Supporting those who Serve us

With our General Election campaign now over, we want to thank members who contacted their local parliamentary candidates to tell them about our manifesto and to ask for their support. We reached nearly 2,300 Parliamentary candidates across 466 constituencies! RBL and Poppyscotland are committed to ensuring the needs of the Armed Forces community are at the forefront of the minds of all new and returning MPs. You can still write to your MP asking them to support our manifesto.
