Swivel Club '40s night

On Saturday 7th November The Swivel Club held an event at Rushden Bowls Club, where The Mainline Big Band entertained over 300 guests with a nostalgic night of '40s music and dance.

The Swivel Club is a local charity, helping individuals and good causes in the Rushden and Higham Ferrers area, with 'Turning Lives Around'. This event was a resounding success with many people passing on their thanks both for the entertainment and good venue, but also helping the Royal British Legion to carry on with their excellent work.

Lt. Col. (retired) Glenn Harwood MBE, Chairman of the Higham Ferrers Branch said "This is a fantastic boost to the Higham Ferrers Branch, which will help us carry out good work in our local community, thank you to the Swivel Club."

Geoff Goss, Vice Chairman Higham Ferrers Branch said: "Thank you Swivel Club for your generous donation and for providing such a great fundraising night. It gave us the opportunity to raise not only money, but the profile of the Royal British Legion in our local community."

The Swivel Club provides a range of entertainment at Rushden Bowls Club throughout the year. It is very well supported by regulars, and welcomes all newcomers see what the Club has to offer. More details can be found online at www.swivelclub.org.uk where next year's events are available to see, including an event for the Royal British Legion next November.
