National Updates

Digital Version of Veteran Card Launched

Nearly 2 million veterans can now benefit from a digital version of the Veteran Card, which will make it easier and quicker to access key services and discounts via their smartphones.

This will give veterans a seamless way to confirm their status in person and will include information already featured on their physical card - displaying their name, photo, latest service, and date of birth with the security features that protect their personal information.

By downloading the optional card on their smartphones, former Service Personnel can show their veteran status to access everything from housing and mental health support to reduced entry at museums and money off their shopping – all at the touch of a button.

Once application is approved, downloading the card takes minutes – far quicker than waiting for a physical card to arrive by post. Just like a digital bank card or rail card, it puts convenient proof of service directly in veterans' pockets, highlighting which service of the Armed Forces they last served in to unlock service-specific support and ending the need to carry a physical copy whilst maintaining the highest security standards.

Veterans can download it via the GOV.UK One Login app, which, like banking apps, uses passcodes, Face ID, or Touch ID, providing the security veterans deserve whilst creating new opportunities to access services more conveniently. Once set up, veterans simply open the app and show their digital card.

New memorial to LGBT veterans unveiled

King Charles III has unveiled a memorial to lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender military personnel after a decades-long campaign against a ban on being gay in the armed forces.

The memorial is dedicated to those from the LGBT+ community now serving in the forces, as well as those who served at a time when it was illegal to be gay in the military.

During the ban, which lasted until the year 2000, those who were gay - or were perceived to be - faced intrusive investigations, dismissal and in some cases imprisonment.

Affected veterans, many of whom attended the ceremony on Monday, said the monument signified closure after years of campaigning first to change the law, and then to push the government to make reparations.

The LGBT+ Veterans Memorial is one of 49 recommendations made by The Etherton Review, an independent report commissioned by government which looked at the treatment of LGBT+ veterans who served under the ban.

Local Updates

Update on ARK at Egwood Armed Forces Hub

The Armed Forces Hub continues to receive a steady stream of referrals from individuals and health professionals. Sam and Lyndsay continue to build their presence in the Mendip and Sedgemoor localities respectively. As well as hosting the Armed Forces Outreach Sessions (AFOS) they are also linking in with local services and promoting their role at local coffee mornings.

The team have had a lot of requests in this quarter to provide briefings on the role of hub, and we have just spent three days at Hinkley Point C as part of their 'Zero Harm Fortnight' Health Fair talking with their workforce, which included a number of ex-Armed Forces personnel. The outreach element of this was important as a number of the Veteran community working there stay locally during their time on shift, and often have little to do during their down time, if they are not able to go home due to the travel involved. We were able to promote the Outreach Sessions, particularly in the Minehead, Bridgwater and Highbridge areas, as these are closest to where most are accommodated.

In addition to the three areas above, we continue to run Outreach Sessions in Yeovil, Chard, Wells, Wellington and Taunton. Below is an update from Sam on the development of the remaining two sessions in Frome and Glastonbury.

With the continued opening of hubs and AFOS across the Mendips, community development is progressing well. Support for the Armed Forces Community (AFC) in Frome is firmly established, with two-hour 1:1 support sessions taking place every Monday at Frome Medical Practice. These sessions are held in a private, glass-walled room that offers confidentiality while allowing natural light and a welcoming environment for sensitive conversations and external referrals.

On the first Monday of each month, we host the Frome AFOS, complete with bacon butties. These sessions have been well attended, providing valuable support to vulnerable veterans through the presence of organisations such as the RBL, SSAFA, Help for Heroes, the DWP, and the RNA, ensuring a wide range of tailored assistance.

Following the opening of St Dunstan's House in Glastonbury, the first AFOS there will be held on 13th November, offering a chance to socialise, meet representatives from various organisations, and enjoy tea, coffee, and bacon butties. Looking ahead, plans are in place to support the AFC in Glastonbury by developing life skills through upcoming cookery, wellbeing, and "living with pain" courses, among others, so keep an eye out for these opportunities in the near future.

If you are in Frome or Glastonbury and one of the sessions is running, please drop in and say hello.

In September, Jon and Lyndsay took the ARK minibus and members of the ARK Armed Forces Community up to the National Memorial Arboretum. For some, this was a first-time visit, however, all that went had a day of emotional reflection as we remembered lost loved ones and fallen comrades.

Next, we are planning a visit to the Fleet Air Arm Museum later in November where we will also be joined by Veterans from the Wells area, which has been arranged through one of our Outreach sessions. This is a lovely opportunity to bring together Veterans from other areas to increase their peer networks.

Finally, we are really pleased to say that ARK and Jon were nominated and went through as finalists at the English Veterans Awards, in the categories of 'Veteran's Group of the Year' and the 'Community Award' respectively. ARK's achievements were recognised with a silver award which is a fantastic accolade for ARK and the Armed Forces Team.

Employer Engagement Programme

The Wessex Reserve Forces' and Cadets' Association (RFCA) engages with local employers on behalf of the MoD and alongside Defence Relationship Management, based in London.

Wessex RFCA raises the awareness of employers, businesses and business people of the Armed Forces, and builds relationships with them. The Employer Engagement programme is delivered by Regional Employer Engagement Directors (REED), based at Wessex RFCA in Taunton.

This programme builds on the successful SaBRE (Supporting Britain's Reservists and their Employers) campaign that assisted businesses with a range of employment matters for Reservists (part-time military personnel). This includes the benefits of having Reservists as employees and the financial assistance that is available during periods of mobilisation. Wessex RFCA is building on this campaign by promoting supportive behaviours towards the whole of the Armed Forces Community, including:

- reservists; service leavers and Veterans;
- cadets and Cadet Force adult volunteers;
- spouses of Service personnel;
- wounded, injured and sick Service personnel.

If you are an employer, one-to-one advice or more information on how supporting the Armed Forces Community can benefit your business is available from Jon Beake – wx-reed@rfca.mod.uk and Rachael Brannagan – wx-reed2@rfca.mod.uk

Many Somerset businesses have already signed up and received Bronze, Silver or Gold recognition.

The Covenant is about more than grants. More importantly, it reaches out to those who serve, or have served, who need help. It also helps integrate our Armed Forces into our communities. We want to increase awareness throughout the wide range of services that may come into contact with Armed Forces personnel, young and old, serving and retired, and their families. These services range from education to housing, healthcare to employers, adult and children's social care to parishes and voluntary organisations.

To help this, please cascade this information across your own organisation.
